Cecily has over 10 years experience in the web and product design industry, and is currently a Senior Product Designer at TravelBank (part of U.S. Bank) where she serves as the lead designer on the Platform & Growth team. She creates highly intuitive and beautiful interfaces everyday to help grow and retain TravelBank's customer base.

Before joining TravelBank, Cecily held a variety of roles in the design and technology industry that led her to focus on user experience, product design, and accessibility design. She has worked for web design agencies, consultancies, and in-house product teams, providing design services to clients such as ABC Legal, Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC), U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, AARP, Goldman Sachs, Marriott, Hyatt, Mandarin Oriental, and Ansys. Her specialities include UX/UI design, visual design, design libraries and systems, accessible design (specifically WCAG AA), marketing design, and UX research.
